Items of General News.

Gen. Geo. B. McClellan has become the American manager of one of the oldest English insurance companies.

According to the New Orleans Picayune if the teeth are good the mouth may be worn open with the poke bonnet.

Each of the leading candidates for Governor in Ohio is a Judge. There isn't much now-a-days that the lawyers don't get.

Mr. Vanderbilt has lost the use of one of his eyes, but the other is sufficiently strong to enable him to detect the date of his coupons.

Between Virginia editors the duello is a sad failure. Not one of them has been killed, though they have had a dozen duels since the war.

Moody is doing his best for Boston by holding crowded meetings in one of the theatres, and promising to continue them nightly all summer.

An exhibit consisting of six Indians, all horrible examples of intemperance, was the premise that drew a crowd to a Kansas total abstinence meeting.

"Give the machine a rest," is what President Arthur is reported to have suggested to a lot of New York politicians who visited him the other day.

Mr. Blaine, of Kentucky, one of the the Internal Revenue Collectors who lost his office in the recent period of pruning, was a cousin of ex-Secretary Blaine.

President Arthur is dressing loudly this summer. He wears a light-gray suit and a crimson necktie which the late Bill Sykes would have considered very "tippy."

The most intimate friend of Queen Emma, of the Sandwich Islands, is a Boston girl, who wrote to King Kalakaua to please invite her to visit his place for a month.

All the politicians are now reported as writing histories of politics and themselves, and the reading public will be worse confused and more confounded than ever.

The variety show manager who would bring Mr. Langtry to this country and put him on exhibition as a specimen husband could make an independent fortune.

Miss Cunningham, who recently married clandestinely an army sergeant in the army, in New Mexico, is a sister, and not a niece, of Mrs. Senator Logan, as has been published.

At Ely, Vermont, on the 3d inst., three hundred miners, whose pay was two months overdue, struck, and, breaking into the company's store house, carried off everything it contained.

Promoters of an elevated railroad project in Chicago are giving stock to property owners along the line, and those who accept it find that they have signed a receipt for all possible damages.

The effective idea of a Georgia eloping couple was to engage every available horse in town for the day of the flight, so that when the father would have pursued he could not command the means.

The rearrangement of the revenue districts has given the Readjusters in Virginia great satisfaction, and Mahone and the Administration still present the spectacle of a modern Damon and Pythias.

The Cincinnati Commercial Gazette has been through the threshing machine once or twice with the Ohio Republicans, and it calmly observes that "another election or two will cool the enthusiasts of Iowa."

Mr. W. H. Vanderbilt has given another $100,000 to the Vanderbilt University, Nashville, Tenn., making the total endowment $700,000. A technical school will be added to the Mining and Civil Engineering Department.

The dying Mrs. Swift, of Rochester, Mich., desired to see her daughter married, but the bridegroom could not be brought in time. Therefore, as coming nearest to her wish that was possible, the wedding was held in her dead presence.

Miss Lillard did not die in Cincinnati, though the doctors said she could not possibly recover, and she regards the restoration of her health as a miracle. Therefore she is about to open a hospital, in which prayer will take the place of medicine.

The Southern Exposition has made a contract with Edison to light their building with 4,000 16-candle lights. The wire will measure forty miles and weigh 40,000 pounds. This will be the largest building ever thus lighted, and will require the largest plant.

John Halliard, ex-President of the ruined Mechanics' and Laborers' Bank of Jersey City, is serving out an eighteen months' sentence in the State prison. New Jersey is about the only State where this class of crime is always promptly and properly punished.

Arcadia College AND ACADEMY

OF THE URSULINE SISTERS

The system of education pursued in this institution is designed to develop the moral, intellectual and physical powers of the pupils; to make them refined, accomplished and useful members of society.

Pupils of all denominations are equally received—all interference with their convictions being carefully avoided.

TERMS For young lady boarders will be for the present, per session of five months, $75.00—payable in advance. Terms for instruction in music, foreign languages, drawing, painting and ornamental handicraft can be had by applying as below.

Attached to the Convent, and totally separated from the boarding school, is a SELECT DAY SCHOOL in which the usual branches of sound and practical education are carefully imparted.

A system of rewards and monthly examinations is held in the pupils a healthy emulation which stimulates study and produces surprising results.

Terms in the Day School will remain as formerly—One Dollar, Two Dollars, Four Dollars, or Five Dollars per month, according to the studies pursued.

In the Day School boys 14 years of age and under will be received. Prospective, and other information, may be had by applying, in person or by letter, to MOTHER ROSE, Superior of the Convent of the Ursuline Sisters, Arcadia, Iron Co., Mo.

A week made at home by the institution. Best business now before the public. Capital not needed. We will start you. Men, women, boys and girls wanted everywhere to work for us. Now is the time. You can work in spare time, or give your whole time to the business. No other business will pay you nearly so well. No one can fail to make enormous pay, by engaging at once. Costly outfit and terms free. Money made fast, easy, and honorably. Address TRUS & CO. Augusta, Maine.
